

VTA Super Bowl 50 Service Plan

Light Rail Service – Game Day:

- VTA is planning to carry up to 12,000 passengers to Levi's® Stadium via light rail and Express Bus in accordance with the needs of the NFL and what VTA can efficiently and safely manage while also considering the heightened security systems that will be in place.
- For passengers not going to Levi's Stadium, modified service will be available throughout the VTA light rail and bus system at the regular fare. Light rail stations, except those between Mountain View and Baypointe will continue to have light rail service. (Service hours vary - see reverse side.)
- Light rail stations between Mountain View and Baypointe stations will be served by a bus bridge. Three stations will be closed on game day: NASA/Bayshore; Moffett Park; Champion.
- Passengers going to Super Bowl must have a pre-purchased special EventTIK fare accompanied by a ticket to the Super Bowl game in order to ride a special limited stop train to Levi's Stadium.
- EventTIK fare is good on all transit that day. (No need to purchase regular light rail fare if you board a regular service train first.)

- The fare for VTA service to the Super Bowl is $20; a combined fare for Caltrain and VTA is $40.
- The EventTIK fare must be downloaded on a smartphone. The activated image on your phone is the proof of purchase required so please make sure your cellphone is charged. The VTA EventTik app is available at iTunes app store or Google Play.
- Only 12,000 EventTIK fare tickets will be sold for service to the Super Bowl game.
- If you do not have a smart phone to purchase EventTIK, please call VTA Customer Service at (408) 321-2300.
- Limited stop service to Levis Stadium on Super Bowl Sunday will be available at 14 designated stations. Trains will have SB50 head signs. See map on backside for designated stations.
- Passengers heading to the Super Bowl, may need to begin their trip on a regular service train and transfer at the designated stations for SB 50.
- Trains will begin arriving with passengers at the stadium at 9 a.m. on Game Day.
- Trains going to the stadium from South San Jose and Downtown will stop at the Lick Mill Station just outside Levi's Stadium. Trains from Mountain View will stop at the Great America Station, also just outside Levi's Stadium.

Super Bowl Sunday Light Rail Service - February 7, 2016

- Trains from Mountain View Transit Center will go directly to Levi's Stadium. Stops in between will be served by substitute bus service (bus bridge.)
- The last trains from Levi's Stadium at both Great America and Lick Mill stations will depart approximately two hours after the game ends.
- More information at www.VTA.org/superbowl.

Bus Service:

- The only direct bus service to Levi's Stadium will be the Express 251 Line from the Fremont BART Station.
- The roundtrip fare is $20 to be purchased on EventTIK via smartphone. The image on your phone is the proof of purchase required so please make sure your cellphone is charged.
- Additional bus service from South San Jose and the Peninsula includes Bus Lines 55, 57, and 60 with increased service. Regular fares apply to these routes.

During Super Bowl 50, VTA is committed not only to providing excellent service to new visitors to Silicon Valley and Super Bowl fans, but also to our regular customers who depend on VTA to get to work, school, and home on a daily basis.
